

2020 National Career Development Summit

January 8, 2020 | The Renaissance Downtown Hotel | Washington, D.C.

Hosted by the Coalition for Career Development

Register Now for the National Career Development Summit!

When you register, you'll be joining leading educators, business executives, and elected officials from both parties for a dynamic Summit devoted to making career readiness the top priority in American education.

All participants will take part in interactive breakout sessions, in which they will be asked to help refine and endorse the Coalition's Action Plan for providing all learners with high-quality career development services.

The Summit will also feature remarks from prominent CEOs and educators, Governors and Administration officials (invited), and career development champions.

Registration includes breakfast, lunch and a full day at the Summit.

Rooms at the conference venue (the Renaissance Hotel) are available for the extremely discounted rate of just $132/night (plus tax).
